

SAMUEL JOHN EVERY, Private 215910 ASC

Samuel was the second son of James John Every and his wife Emma. J.J. Every ran the Post Office, Grocer's shop, and a shoemaking business, and seems to have been a prime mover in Buckland society. Samuel went into the butcher's trade, and in 1901 was living in the High Street in Taunton, working as a Butcher's Assistant for Jane Baker, 'Superintendent Butcher'. In 1908 he married Amelia Alice Greenslade of Staplegrove, and they moved to Tiverton, where their daughter Kathleen, their only child, was born in 1909. In 1911 they were living at 6 East View, Chapel Street; Samuel was working as a Journeyman Butcher.

We are fortunate in finding that Samuel's Army Service Records have survived, so we have a pretty well documented picture of his Army career. Samuel attested in Exeter on December 9 1915; he gives his age as 32 years, 246 days. He was 5ft 5in, with a chest measurement (fully expanded) of 39in. He was called up on September 23 1916, as a Butcher in the ASC, later RASC, and proved himself as a First Hand in slaughtering. He left for France from Southampton on October 22 1916 on board SS Archangel, arriving in Le Havre on the 23rd. On November 15 he was posted to 2nd Field Butchery.

His Active Service Casualty Form logs some of the main points in his Army career. He was on leave from November 19 1917 to December 4th. At the beginning of 1918 he was classified as B1, suffering from a double hernia. On March 14 1918 he was admitted to the 2nd General Hospital with a cut forehead, and discharged on the 26th. He seems to have been unlucky here, as on May 2 he fell while trying to jump onto a moving tram (as described below and on the next page) and ended up with contusions and abrasions to his brow and eyelid. The Army documents everything, and there is a Report on Accidental or Self-Inflicted Injuries detailing just what happened, where (the Boulevard de Strasbourg, Havre) and the consequences – no Disciplinary Action to be taken.

On September 27 1918 Samuel was promoted to Lance (or 'Assistant' here) Corporal, and to Corporal on January 7 1919. In the meantime he'd been on leave in France from November 24 to December 8 1918, and then UK leave from May 13 to 25 1919. He was finally demobbed on August 5 1919, signing a standard form to say he was not claiming for any disability.

Once he was out of the Army, information stops, but surfaces again in the 1939 Register of England and Wales; he is still working as a butcher and is living with his wife near
