

RICHARD JOHN KENNETH WALTER, Private M2/119868, Army Service Corps

Richard Walter wasn't a native of the Blackdowns, but moved there after his marriage. His father, also Richard, was a Solicitor, born in Stoke sub Hamdon, and living in Iminster in West Street, near The Shrubbery, and later at Wake Hill, Iminster. Richard the younger, born on February 27 1886, was schooled at Uppingham, the public school in Rutland, and married Mary Durham in 1911.

It was a wedding of a different sort, taking paragraphs of The Courier (February 11, 1911) to describe the dresses, the occasion, the presents. Here is a short sample.

The young couple moved into the Grange in Buckland St Mary in 1911, one of a group of properties owned in Buckland St Mary by his father. Richard senior may have been a solicitor, but his son describes himself simply as being of 'Private Means', and later as 'Gentleman'.

He must have joined up during 1915, before conscription, and was sent to France on September 8. The prefix of 'M2' to his Regimental number means he was in the Mechanical Transport section of the ASC, possibly as a Driver. On his Medal Roll Index Card the Regiment is described as simply the ASC, but 'R' has later been added, as it was given a personal seal of approval by George V.

There is no indication that Richard was moved elsewhere; he was demobbed by March 5 1919, when he was assigned to Class Z, the Class devised to allow quick call up if necessary.

Richard senior died in 1925, leaving an estate of some £44000. His Buckland St Mary estates were sold in 1926.

The Grange, Buckland St Mary

Sometime after the war the junior Walters moved to Teignmouth, where they're to be found at the 1939 Register of England and Wales. Richard is still described as of Independent Means; he's also noted as an ARP (Air Raid Protection) Warden. When he died on April 16 1976 aged 90 they had moved to Hereford.

ILMINSTER.

MARRIAGE OF MR. R. J. K. WALTER AND MISS MARY MAUD DURHAM.

On Tuesday last, All Saints' Church, Compton, near Winchester, was the scene of a very pretty and fashionable wedding, which will be of especial interest to our Ilminster readers, by reason of the bridegroom being the only son of Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Walter, of Wake Hill. Mr. Walter is the representative of a very old and honored Somersetshire family, and for many years has practiced as a solicitor at Ilminster, where he holds various public appointments. A short time since, Mr. and Mrs. Walter changed their residence to their charming property at Wake Hill, which is close to Dowlish Wake. Hearty congratulations have been showered upon them and their son upon the latter's happy marriage with Miss Mary Maud Durham, eldest daughter of the Rev. C. R. Durham, rector of Compton and Shawford, Winchester, and Mrs. Durham. The weather on Tuesday was delightfully fine, and there was a large gathering of the friends of the happy couple on both sides, in addition to the villagers, who turned out en masse to witness the ceremony. Mr. R. T. Walter was prevented, by an attack of influenza, from being present, to the deep regret of the assembled guests. The Rector "gave away" his daughter, the ceremony being conducted by an uncle of the bride (the Rev. Charles Oldfield Bartlett), and the Rev. Canon Braithwaite. The church was beautifully decorated, some magnificent blooms being employed in the work. The choral service included the hymns, "Lead us, Heavenly Father, lead us" (281) and "O Father all creating" (579), and the organist (Mr. Hawkins) played the "Bridal March from Lohengrin" (Wagner), "O for the wings of a dove" (Mendelssohn), and Smart's "Grand March in C." The bride was charmingly gowned in ivory mousseline duchesse satin with yoke and cuffs of Honiton lace, lent by her mother, and worn by her grandmother (Mrs. T. C. Durham) and her mother at their weddings. She wore a pendant of pearls and diamonds with drop amethyst, and carried a shower bouquet, both being gifts of the bridegroom. There were four bridesmaids, Miss Isabel Durham (only sister of the bride), Miss Amber Hammond groom. There were four bridesmaids, Miss Amber Hammond (only sister of the bride), Miss Estelle Bartlett (cousins), and Miss Violet Thorold. They were similarly attired in pretty gowns of pale yellow satin, made with tunics of nixon of a paler shade, prettily trimmed with lace threaded with gold. Their picture hats were of bronze crinoline, trimmed with large yellow roses and satin leaves and caps of lace threaded with gold. They carried crooks decorated with yellow roses, fern, and bronze ribbon. Pearl and amethyst brooches worn by the bridesmaids were the gifts of the bridegroom. Mr. Chaffey Collin supported the bridegroom as best man. The bride's mother wore a gown of mole-coloured satin with tunic of Tosca silk not trimmed with silk insertion, and satin straw toque to match, trimmed.

At the conclusion of the ceremony a reception was held at the Rectory, Compton, prior to the departure of the bride and bridegroom for their honeymoon, which is being spent in London and Brighton. Eventually they will take up their residence at The Grange, Buckland St. Mary.

We append a list of the guests:—Mrs. R. T. Walter, Mrs. Fowke, Capt. and Mrs. Langdon, Miss Collin, Mr. Collin, Sir Arthur and Lady Hammond, Miss Veronica Hammond, Col. and Mrs. Rowlandson, Rev. C. Oldfield and Mrs. Bartlett, Mr. T. Oldfield Bartlett, Miss Bartlett, Rev.
