

CECIL HUGH KEITCH

31 March 1904 - ?

Born as he was in 1904, this cannot be the man who is mentioned in the School Roll of Honour as serving (regiment unspecified) and by Arthur Lance in his 1916 letter to Sam Pym, both saying that he has been wounded. Yet the School Roll of Honour notes his date of birth as 1904, and that he left school in 1917. Some confusion here.

This is a confusion which we've not been able to resolve. There must have been another Cecil Keitch, yet we cannot trace him. The only clue is the death of a Cecil H. Keitch in Yeovil in 1955 aged 81. He must have been born in about 1874, so would have in fact been on the old side to have served. Unfortunately that is all we can find about him.

Cecil's older brother Edward did serve, and his details and family background are listed below.
